- A. Types of Consent for Research:
 - 1. Signed parent consent (active/positive): The researcher must have a signed parent permission slip for each student who is involved. "Active/Positive Consent" is used when; (a) using Special Education students, (b) the researcher is as ing! uestions that infringe on following effect5 6Although there will be no direct benefit to "ou for ta ing part in this stud", the researcher ma" learn more about 888.6

- 9. Confidentiality: A clear statement of how the confidentialit of private data identifing the sub#ect will be maintained.
- .. $isc\aimer: A clear statement that participation is voluntar" and the sub\(#ect \) is free to refuse participation altogether or discontinue it at an" time. The choice to participate or not to participate will not impact an" relationship with the researcher nor the institution (*n the case of a student, it will not impact the grades or status at school.)
- :. Signat"res: ; ated signatures of participant and or parent%guardian.

ote: *f student participation is to be video=taped or photographs are to be ta en active consent with an approval chec allowing the photograph" shall be completed.

^{&#}x27; int: <eep the language simple (. th grade terminolog" is t"picall" recommended).

Sample: Passive/ egative Consent to (se $ata)*ample +nly,,,\(\frac{1}{2}\) o not copy ver-atim.

Note: Similar format should be used for adult subjects. Informed consent is part of the research application process. Your building administrator must approve the letter before it is part of the application. Once edited, the letter should be distributed on school or district letterhead.

; ate5

; ear (arent5

' " name is

Sample: Passive/ egative Parent Consent for St"dent Participation )*ample +nly,,,$\square$0 not copy ver-atim.

Note: Similar format should be used for adult subjects. Informed consent is part of the research application process. Your building administrator must approve the letter before it is part of the application. Once edited, the letter should be distributed on school or district letterhead.

; ate5

; ear (arent5

Sample: Active/Positive Parent Consent for St"dent Participation )*ample +nly,,,$\sqrt{so not copy ver-atim}.

Note: Similar format should be used for adult subjects. Informed consent is part of the research application process. Your building administrator must approve the letter before it is part of the application. Once edited, the letter should be distributed on school or district letterhead.

; ate5

; ear (arent5

[&]quot; name is (teacher name) and * am a science teacher at